

Summit: People Living With Dementia Aged Care and Human Rights

9am-3.30pm, Friday 22 November 2019

University of Technology, Quay Street, Haymarket, Sydney

FREE event but please RSVP for catering purposes:
email Linda Steele linda.steele@uts.edu.au

Views of people living with dementia, care partners, human rights advocates, aged care workers, lawyers and researchers.

Topics include:

- ◇ advocating for legal rights and human rights
- ◇ dignity, safety and human rights
- ◇ chemical restraint as a human rights issue
- ◇ human rights in aged care of child welfare care leavers
- ◇ diversity, identity and human rights in aged care
- ◇ human rights and regulating aged care

For further information, please email Linda Steele: linda.steele@uts.edu.au

This event is supported by:

- ◇ Dementia Australia Research Foundation – Victoria Project Grant for project 'Safe and Just Futures for People Living with Dementia in Residential Aged Care'
- ◇ UTS Law Health Justice Research Centre

UNIVERSITY
OF WOLLONGONG
AUSTRALIA

